Re: Jay Alix v. McKinsey & Co., Inc. et al., 18-CV-04141 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman:

This firm represents Plaintiff Jay Alix in the above captioned matter. We write with reference to the Court's order of May 16, 2022 setting a conference for May 24, 2022, at 4 pm (Dkt. 158), and the Court's order of May 18, 2022 rescheduling the conference to May 24, 2022 at 11:45 a.m. (Dkt. 159). Unfortunately, both myself and Sean O'Shea, lead counsel for Plaintiff, will be out of the country on and around that date. Accordingly, Plaintiff respectfully requests that the conference be rescheduled for May 31 or any other day later that week, preferably in the morning if it suits the Court's schedule. Defendants consent to a postponement of the conference (to any day besides June 1, when they have a conflict), provided they receive a commensurate extension of the motion to dismiss briefing schedule. Plaintiff consents to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Michael E. Petrella

Counsel for Plaintiff Jay Alix

The conference scheduled for May 24, 2022, is rescheduled to May 31, 2022, at 9:45 a.m. All other dates and deadlines (including the briefing schedule) remain in effect. The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate ECF Nos. 160 and 161.

SO ORDERED.
